What is a Living Classroom?

The Living Classroom is a partnership model that integrates education into a long-term care (LTC) home to support the development of the healthcare workforce for senior living. Students, faculty, and those living, visiting, and working in the home engage in a culture of shared learning. For further information about the Living Classroom model, see https://livingclassroom.ca/, Building Your Living Classroom Team and the Readiness Checklist - LTC Partner and the Readiness Checklist - Education Partner. For the benefits of the Living Classroom, see The Benefits of a Living Classroom.

The Living Classroom Fund supports educational institutions and LTC home partnerships looking to enhance PSW and PN training through hands-on learning.

Application Guidelines

APPLICATION TYPE

In this section:

- Select if you and your partner are applying to develop a new PN Living Classroom or to enhance, expand, and/or sustain an existing PN Living Classroom
- If your partnership is applying for an existing PN Living Classroom, you may skip Parts 1, 2, and 5, unless there are new or updated details to add to these sections.

What is a "new" or "existing" Living Classroom?

Practical Nursing Living Classrooms applications are considered new if they have never received funding from previous waves. Practical Nursing Living Classrooms funded in Wave Four are considered existing.

EXISTING APPLICANTS

- If your partnership is applying for an existing PN Living Classroom, please provide the name of the organization, the primary contact name, and the primary contact email address for both the Lead and Partner organizations.

- If your partnership includes multiple long-term care sites (such as in a distributed or rotating model), please list organization names and contact information for each site, rather than completing a separate application for each site. Separate applications can be completed for unrelated sites. Please email livingclassroom@the-ria.ca if you have any questions.

- If you are a new applicant, please skip this section.

PART 1: LEAD APPLICANT DETAILS (EDUCATION INSTITUTION)

In this section:

- Start by selecting your organization type.
- Enter your organization name.
- Enter your organization's address.
- Select the cultural designation of your education institution, if applicable.
- Enter your name, job title and contact details.
- Briefly describe your role with respect to planning and/or managing the Living Classroom.
- Provide contact details for any alternate/secondary contacts for your Living Classroom program.

Who can apply for funding?

The Living Classroom Fund supports a partnership model between educational institutions and LTC homes looking to enhance PN education through hands-on learning. Applicants must submit a joint application, with input from both the LTC home partner and education institution partner.

Applications will be accepted from any of the following organizations in Ontario:

- Public colleges, or Indigenous Institutes, as lead applicant
- Long-term care homes, or their corporate offices, as partners

ELIGIBILITY NOTES:

- This funding opportunity is available for Living Classroom partners who can commit to launching a new Living Classroom PN cohort in Winter, Spring, and/or Fall 2027.

- Please refer to the specific PSW application form and the accompanying application guide for detailed requirements related to the Personal Support Worker program funding if applying for a PSW Living Classroom.

- Educational institutions are responsible for ensuring their student insurance covers the location of the Living Classroom.

Who should complete the application form?

The application form should be completed jointly by the primary education institution partner and the primary LTC home partner(s). The education partner must be the lead applicant.

The lead applicant is the organization that will receive and manage funding for the Living Classroom, including disbursing funds to the partner organization(s) as agreed between the lead applicant and the partner organization(s). The lead applicant is accountable for reporting on how the funds are spent in consultation with their partner organization. Both the lead applicant and partner organization are responsible for completing the funding application and any required program reporting and evaluation activities.

Can partner organizations apply for funding separately?

No. Organizations must apply jointly for Living Classroom funding. Living Classroom partners are encouraged to consider formal agreements to determine how funds will be disseminated from the lead applicant to the partner organization(s) as applicable.

What if we don't have a Living Classroom partner?

Applications will only be accepted from organizations with partnerships to support the establishment of robust and sustainable Living Classroom programs. The program will actively support successful applicants who are developing new partnerships.

Can a national LTC corporate office serve as a partner for funding?

Yes. National LTC organizations with a corporate office in Ontario can serve as partners for Living Classroom funding. However, all funds must be used solely to support Ontario Living Classrooms.

What is the definition of a Living Classroom "location"?

A Living Classroom location is the individual LTC home where students participate in integrated learning, which may include theory and/or lab components. The Living Classroom may be located within, or adjacent to, the LTC home.

Can an organization apply for multiple Living Classroom locations?

Yes. Organizations with more than one Living Classroom partnership or location may submit multiple applications.

Can an application include multiple long-term care homes?

Yes. A Living Classroom partnership can include more than one long-term care home. Student cohorts may be distributed or rotated among long-term care Living Classroom sites to support localized community needs, student recruitment, long-term care staffing/preceptor capacity, and program sustainability.

The lead applicant may complete a single application with multiple LTC partners. They will receive and manage funding for the Living Classroom, including disbursing funds to the partner organization(s) as agreed upon between the lead applicant and the partner organization(s). Partners will be responsible for reporting and evaluation requirements for each Living Classroom site.

Separate applications for unique sites/unrelated partnerships can still be submitted.

What education programs can be supported through this funding?

This funding opportunity is available for Living Classrooms that offer a Practical Nursing (PN) diploma program. PN Programs that offer PSW-to-PN bridging streams can also apply.

The Living Classroom Fund is designed to increase the number of PSWs and PNs who graduate from Living Classrooms and choose to work in LTC. While we recognize that some Living Classrooms may also offer other education programs needed to meet LTC workforce demands, this funding is currently available only for PSW and PN education within Living Classrooms.

PART 2: LIVING CLASSROOM PARTNER (LTC HOME)

- Start by selecting your organization type.
- Provide the name and address of the partner organization.
- Select the cultural designation of your long-term care home, if applicable.

- Tell us about any other organizations involved in your Living Classroom partnership.

Must the partners have an MOU, an operating agreement, or a lease agreement in place?

No. A signed agreement(s) is not required to submit a funding application. However, formal agreements are highly recommended to guide and sustain successful Living Classroom partnerships. For more information, see the Memorandum of Understanding resource.

In this section:

How much funding is available?

Two funding streams are available: Implementation funding and Student Wraparound Support funding. Applicants may apply for one or both funding streams. If your application is approved, payments will be made quarterly following confirmation of cohort launch(s). Details will be included in a payment schedule outlined in the Letter of Agreement.

What can the funding be used for?

Stream 1: Implementation Funding

Implementation funding supports expenses that contribute directly to starting, enhancing, expanding, or sustaining your Living Classroom.

General guidelines:

No, LTC homes are encouraged to use PREP LTC funding for these staffing costs. Costs associated with Living Classroom coordination (e.g., integration activities) may be eligible. Please detail in your application.

Stream 2: Student Wraparound Supports

The purpose of wraparound support funding is to support students with expenses that may otherwise prevent them from participating in or succeeding in an education program. Applicants will be responsible for either a) distributing funding to students directly, or b) spending funding on services or materials that will reduce student barriers to participating in and completing the PN program.

General guidelines:

- Wraparound supports depend on the needs of the local community and students.
- Consideration should be given to supports that will enhance program sustainability beyond the funding end date.
- Wraparound supports may not duplicate funding allocated to implementation categories.
- Applicants cannot use these funds to duplicate wraparound support already funded by other government sources.

- All services and goods for the project must be procured in accordance with the Broader Public Sector Procurement Directive.

Wraparound supports may include, but are not limited to, the following:

PART 5: LIVING CLASSROOM DETAILS

In this section:

- Indicate whether the long-term care site will also host a PSW Living Classroom with the same or another education partner.
- Describe the location of your Living Classroom and select the available spaces (e.g., classroom, lab rooms, student lounge/study areas, faculty spaces, etc.)
    - For new Living Classrooms, describe your future vision for the classroom.
    - For existing Living Classrooms, tell us about any planned changes.

- Indicate your agreement to meet regularly with a member of the Living Classroom Outreach team throughout the funding period to develop a comprehensive Sustainability Plan.

Do all clinical placements and consolidation have to occur at the Living Classroom long-term care site?

No. The Living Classroom program recognizes that each PN program is unique and offers a variety of required or optional placement settings. Acute and community placements can continue to be offered. As a program aimed at improving recruitment and retention within long-term care, Living Classroom partners should endeavour to ensure that students complete their final consolidation placement within a long-term care setting.

What if the long-term care home does not have the capacity to support all Living Classroom students for clinical placement or consolidation?

Partners may engage in multi-home partnerships where appropriate to support community and student needs. Alternatively, education providers can partner with one primary long-term care Living Classroom partner for funding and integrated learning, and engage additional homes to support placement capacity.
